

Student Job (Native French Speaker / Part time)

Job description

As native speaking French student in this position you will be responsible for content creation for our French shops. You will be responsible for translating new collections and optimizing our shops concerning SEO. Next to that you will be responsible for our French customer service, where you will answer emails, phone calls and product questions from new and returning customers. Furthermore, you will manage the contact with our suppliers and service partners. The hours are flexible, ideal next to your busy student lifestyle.

Your profile

There is a dynamic and informal atmosphere within Etrias where initiative is encouraged and personal development is motivated. Working at Etrias requires a critical and constructive attitude, a commercial and collective approach. We are looking for a young and ambitious candidate who is an analytical and critical thinker. Someone who is pragmatic, proactive, flexible and able to prioritise their workload. Above all, we are looking for someone who is able to flourish in the various tasks required of the position and will be an asset to our team as a whole.

About Etrias

Etrias Lifestyle Stores is one of the most dynamic and fast-growing companies in the Netherlands. As a major player in e-commerce, Etrias operates dozens of online stores in the Netherlands, France, Belgium, Germany and the United Kingdom.
